

Ku-ring-gai Historical Society

Rallying the Troops: A World War I Commemoration, Volume 2

For more information about this publication and to order, click here

Volume 2 Table of Contents

Foreword

Preface

Training

1: Train as you would Fight: Training begins for the Australian Imperial Force (AIF)

2: Training begins in New South Wales

3: The Army in Roseville: the Engineer Officers' Training School

4: Administration, Training and Rehabilitation of Australian Troops in the United Kingdom

5: The Making of an Australian Soldier: the Training Experiences of Ku-ring-gai Men in the 18th Battalion

Campaigns

6: A Campaign with Horses and Camels, from the Sinai Desert to Palestine and Syria (1916 – 1918)

7: Australian Troops on the Western Front

8: The Battle of Fromelles

9: The Battles of Pozières and Mouquet Farm

10: Confronting the Hindenburg Line at Bullecourt

Our Ku-ring-gai Volunteers

G Surnames

H Surnames

I Surnames

J Surnames

K Surnames

Appendices

- Australian Military Structure in World War I
- World War I Glossary
- Those Who Gave Their Lives: Where They are Commemorated or Buried Overseas
- Honours and Awards
- Our Ku-ring-gai Volunteers Appearing in Volumes 1, 2, 3 and 4

Index

Acknowledgements