

Ku-ring-gai Historical Society

Rallying the Troops: A World War I Commemoration, Volume 3

For more information about this publication and to order, click here

Volume 3 Table of Contents

---

5	Foreword
6	Preface

---

The Movement for Conscription

9	1: An Army of Volunteers: the Conscription Referendums of 1916 and 1917
18	2: Exemption from Conscription: the Ku-ring-gai Experience

---

The Battles of 1917

27	3: Anzacs on the Western Front – 1917 Overview
30	4: The 'Old Prof' and the Tunnellers
42	5: Earthquaking Messines Ridge (7 June 1917)
55	6: The Third Battle of Ypres – Step by Step to Passchendaele (July to November 1917)

---

Care and Support

71	7: 'Stretcher Bearer!' – Casualty Clearance from the Battlefield
85	8: Working in a Living Hell: Ku-ring-gai Doctors, Nurses and Dentists
97	9: Medical Issues of the War Encountered by Ku-ring-gai Doctors and Nurses
105	10: A Churchful of Soldiers: Military Chaplains
117	11: The Australian Red Cross and its Voluntary Aid Detachments in World War I
137	12: An Even Larger Army: Support from Home for Those at the Front

---

Ku-ring-gai Volunteers

151	L Surnames
223	M Surnames
354	N Surnames
381	O Surnames
399	P Surnames
489	R Surnames

---

Appendices

597	Australian Military Structure in World War I
602	World War I Glossary
612	Abbreviations
614	Service, Honour and Commemoration
618	Honours and Awards
620	Those Who Gave Their Lives: Where They are Commemorated or Buried Overseas
628	Ku-ring-gai Volunteers Appearing in Volumes I, II, III and IV
638	Index
652	Acknowledgements